

CCAA TITLE, BOWL BID AT STAKE

He'll Be Raisin Cain Tonight

IT'S A NATURAL SPARTANS VS. FSC

By DICK FRY

While the Fresno State Bulldogs lounged around the spacious courts of Rancho Hacienda, enjoying a few hours rest before hitting Spartan stadium tonight, Coach Bill Hubbard was putting his Golden Raiders through a last minute signal brush-up. Both squads have refrained from any hard contact work this week, but Hubbard drilled his boys right up to the gun last night on the Spartan practice field.

San Jose sport fans are in for 60 minutes of top flight football tonight when the two leading teams of the CCAA meet for the conference championship and a crack at the Fresno JCC Raisin bowl January 1. The Bulldogs, sparked by their ace passer, Jacke Fellows, renew one of the oldest State college rivalries on the Pacific Coast against the Spartans—a rivalry that was started in 1921.

Ushers Should Be At Game Early

Rally committee members who have any free time this afternoon are requested to help decorate the goal posts at the stadium. There is a lot of work to be done; so as many members as possible should plan to help. Work will start at 3.

Ushers for the game tonight should be at the stadium at 6:30. Because there are a number of instructions to be received, it is necessary that the ushers be on time.

Tonight, after a three year war-time lapse, Jimmy "Rabbit" Bradshaw brings his San Joaquin squad into the Seventh street bowl looking for their seventh win of the season. That combination of "naturals" might have some hidden significance.

JUST A NATURAL

Coach Bill Hubbard's gold and white varsity, riding behind their fighting line, will also be out for victory number seven in the '46 campaign, and the San Jose mentor is not a superstitious gentleman.

The Spartans and Bulldogs are pretty nearly at their fighting weights for tonight's battle, but the edge must go with the locals. In addition to win seven, the gold and white will be trying to protect an end zone that hasn't been dented in the last four outings: a pretty fair country average.

DEW DO'S IT

With Oregon mist prevailing this evening, look for the Spartans by 13. But with a cool dry evening, it might be 7. Consistent, aren't we? Shall we say 13-7? All right, we will.

Hope Gone for Lost Americans in Alps

BRAMANS (UP)—Leaders of two exhausted rescue teams said last night that hope was almost gone for 11 Americans isolated for the third day beside the wreckage of their army plane in the frozen, storm wracked Alps.

From aboard an army rescue plane over the Alps, UP staff correspondent writes, "Our plane saw no smoke of any kind. We bounced around in air pockets like a toy balloon at times as we went low between peaks to get a close look at some spots. The last word we received from the wreck scene said, 'we are urgently in need of clothing, food and medical aid'."

German Scientists Plead Not Guilty

NUERNBERG (UP)—Twenty-three of Germany's leading medical scientists, including one woman pleaded not guilty yesterday of torturing hundreds of thousands of people including American war prisoners in experiments to aid the nazi war effort.

The defendants are accused of making guinea pigs of innocent persons, including aged and infirm Germans, in a deliberate mass program of torture and cruelty.

Britain Won't Talk

LAKE SUCCESS (UP)—Great Britain balked today at a Soviet proposal that members of the United Nations reveal the number and location of their armed forces abroad, insisting that the matter be considered only as part of the general question of disarmament.

Noise Parade Starts Events

Every car, crate, and jalopy is needed tonight in the noise parade. Meet at the S. P. depot at 6 o'clock prepared to leave for the stadium. Bring your rooters cap and white shirts—no one—regardless of his ticket number—will be allowed in the center section without a white shirt and cap.

Fresno rooters will arrive at 6 o'clock. They will need Spartan cars for transportation. The parade will start at 6:30 and will travel up San Carlos street to 13th, across 13th to Santa Clara street, down Santa Clara to First street, down First to Keyes street, up Keyes to Tenth street, and from there to the stadium.

San Jose police will give us an escort. Arm signals are important. Let the person behind you know what you're going to do, and there should be no trouble. Drivers, watch the car ahead of you. Do not try to get out of line. Blow your horns all the way. Really "racket it up." DO NOT STOP FOR RED STOP LIGHTS.

In case of rain, the parade will be cancelled.

SJSC, Fresno Post-Game Dance

Paul Putman's orchestra will furnish the music for tonight's after-the-game football dance at the Civic auditorium, according to Pat O'Brien, chairman of the Social Affairs committee.

Fresno State and San Jose State college students will be admitted free to the dance upon presentation of their student body cards. ASB members may bring one guest.

The dance will begin immediately after the game, and although Fresno rooters leave at midnight, San Jose students may dance until 1 o'clock.

Mary Price, chairman of the decoration committee, plans on turning the auditorium into a typical football dance ballroom.

According to the city laws concerning the Civic auditorium, a person who leaves the building cannot re-enter. Students are warned not to try to go in and out. Plan to stay in the auditorium until you are ready to leave permanently.

Janie May Reed Makes Appearance During Halftime Events Tonight

Janie May Reed, champion majorette in five western states, and San Jose State college marching band mascot from 1937 until 1941, will make a guest appearance during half-time activities at the football game tonight.

Miss Reed joined the college marching band when she was six years old. She is the California state champion, and at present holds five majorette championships. According to Bob Reid, college drum major, she will enter the national championship competition at the American Legion convention next year.

Many returned veterans will remember the acrobatic twirling of Miss Reed back in those days of yore before 1941. More than 100 routines with three batons make up part of her repertoire.

Janie May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Reed of San Jose, led the Treasure Island band at the 1940 opening of the Golden Gate International exposition on Treasure Island. At that time, the Exposition judges had named her "baby streamline of 1940."

The great-great-granddaughter of the first white child born at Sutter's Fort, Sacramento, Miss Reed is also the cousin of Bob Reid, drum major for the marching band.

In the words of one veteran, "It will seem good to welcome Janie May back to State after so long. This should happen more often."

Miners Killed In Coal Strike

WASHINGTON (UP)—John L. Lewis was cited for contempt of court yesterday and ordered to appear in the Federal district court here Monday to show cause why he should not be jailed or fined for refusing to call off the soft coal strike.

Civil charges rather than criminal actions were brought against Lewis because under the civil charge there is no limit to the jail sentence or fine which the law can impose.

In an isolated West Virginia town, meanwhile, two miners were killed as violence broke out for the first time in the coal strike.

According to police, a mine foreman shot two miners who tried to prevent him and two other miners from loading coal at a small truck operation.

Army-Notre Dame May Meet in West

LOS ANGELES (UP)—The city council last night invited Army to meet Notre Dame in a post-season football game here a week before the Rose Bowl game which cold-shouldered the military academy.

Fashion Show Aids Chapel

A few tickets are still left for Allenian society's fashion show, to benefit the campus Memorial Chapel fund, Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 in the Student Union.

Weeks of preparation by members of the sorority have gone into the planning of this affair.

The very latest in winter styles, both sport and formal, will be modelled by eight members of the organization, assisted by representatives from the other sororities.

APPAREL PROVIDED

The women's apparel to be modelled has been provided through the courtesy of three of San Jose's leading stores—Made-moiselle, Dee Ann's, and Eunice Shaw.

UNION DECORATED

The union will be decorated, and a background of musical selections will accompany the afternoon program. Tea and refreshments will be served by members of Allenian society.

Committee chairman for the affair is Doris Moody. Shirley Wilbur will be commentator for the occasion.

Tickets may still be obtained from any Allenian, or from the booth located under the Library arch. Price of admission is 74 cents.

This year's proceeds will be given, as they were last year, to the Memorial Chapel fund. This is Allenian society's second year of sponsorship of a fashion show for the fund.

ARE WE ORGANIZED?

Tonight Spartans will try again with a noise parade designed to let the townspeople know there's a football game. The Rally committee has given the word, and the parade is all set.

There was a noise parade before the Hawaiian All-Star game, also planned by the Rally committee, but which resulted in several collisions—a couple of which were pretty bad.

We hope that the Rally committee has learned from their experience of last month, and will have things under better control tonight.

It might be a good plan if the parade gained speed gradually, instead of starting off as fast as the last one did. Also, Rally committee members should be stationed at more frequent intervals along the line of cars.

To be successful, a noise parade must run smoothly, with no collisions to slow it up. If we are to make the best impression on both San Joseans, and Bulldog rooters, we should have a successful noise parade.

It's up to both the Rally committee—and the students taking part—to make this one a success.

THRUST AND PARRY

PUNCH LINE

Thrust and Parry
 Dear Riled Students 701, 1283, 5080—

I could not help reading your gripe in yesterday's paper, concerning the words of a certain "football official." Now, it was a nasty bunch of words, down right disgusting, your point well taken. HOWEVER, if I fell in the mud and said, "Oh my good-ness look what I have done to my nice clean clothes," you would look at me as if I were one of the Pershing Square boys. This article concerning an interesting sidelight surely is not so important that you need blow steam. No one is required to read the Daily, and the editor is quite well qualified to choose good material—and being a lady like yourselves—surely she would not print anything that would offend other girls. To you I say—Try Dr. Anthony.

THANKS

Better late than never they say, and this is really late. I just wanted to thank the 20 students who went to San Diego last week to see the game. Together with the assistance of the Brown Military academy, we really let the team know they had support in the stands. I'm not kidding when I say the boys on the field and I appreciate it. Thanks again.

Cash Prizes Given For Essay Contest

Cash prizes amounting to $3000 are being offered by the Tamiment Social and Economic Institute of New York in its annual essay contest.

A first prize of $1500 is offered for the best essay on the theme, "Roads to Industrial Peace." There will be a second prize of $750 and three third prizes of $250 each for the contest which is open to all undergraduate college students.

Judges for the contest will be Henry Hazlitt, editor of Newsweek; Algernon Lee, president of the Rand School of social science; Selig Perlman, University of Wisconsin professor of economics; Sumner H. Slichter, Harvard University professor of economics; and Ordway Tead, editor for Harpers and Brothers publishers.

LEADERS???

The election is over and, although I have no quarrel with the results, I would like to make a comment on the attitude of student council members.

When the proposal for changing the colors was brought up before the council, one member only expressed an opinion. The rest were noncommittal. At the next meeting when the election was decided on, again only one council member expressed an opinion.

In fact, it was not until the day before the election, when it was evident which side was the advantageous one, that the other council members spoke up, against the change.

It makes a student kinda wonder whether he is governed by student leaders, or opportunists with no ideas of their own.

TAKE BACK YOUR PLAQUE---AY!

By ABNER FRITZ

Spartan rooters hope that the Fresno State rooting section's train won't be so crowded that they will be unable to take some baggage back with them.

Since 1942 when San Jose lost to Fresno 6-0, this plaque has hung conspicuously over the door of the Student Body office for all to see.

The plaque was put into use in 1939, and the Raisin-towners took immediate possession by virtue of their 42-7 drubbing at the hands of the Spartans.

In 1940, the Spartans eked out a 14-7 win, and the following year saw a 7-7 tie.

In the last meeting of the two schools, 1942, the Bulldogs won 6-0. It was then the misfortune of Tommy Taylor, student body president at the time, to take charge of the plaque and hang it in its present position.

Now, four years later, Marty Taylor, younger brother of Tommy, is occupying the ASB position.

"This game is very important to me" Marty pleads, "I would like to avenge the family honor and have the pleasure of giving Fresno THEIR plaque at the post game dance tonight."

At present THE plaque is being kept under lock and key to prevent any attempts at sabotage.

Former Spartan Returns as B-Dog

Elwyn Schwartz, class of 1936, will be back in the stands with the band tonight after a long, long absence. But he won't be wearing gold and white. He will be directing the Fresno State college Bulldog band.

Schwartz graduated from San Jose State and started his career with the Kingsburg high school band. This year he received an appointment to the Fresno State college music department and was placed in charge of the band.

Prickly Adventure

LAKEVIEW, Ore. (U.P.) — Woodsman I. J. Pradmore was felling trees in the Mud Creek area when a 40-pound porcupine toppled on his back. Attendants at a local hospital removed 120 quills from Pradmore's hide.

ANYTHING CAN HAPPEN---AND DID IN FSC, SJS TILTS

Like the Martins and Coys, the Bulldogs and Spartans have been hangerin' for three years to wet their sights again, and settle down to a blasting rivalry that began in 1921.

It was a case of insult added to injury when the Fresno State Bulldogs first met the Spartans. The San Jose team had taken a face-loosing thrashing from the San Jose high school, 7-0. Then they met Fresno—and won.

THEY SNARLED

Since that time, the Bulldogs snarled when the Spartan entered his yard. From 1925 to '29, Coach Bill Hubbard entered the rivalry for the Spartans, and starred against the Bulldogs on two occasions.

In 1926, "to rub it in," Fresno started the "Big Game" with their second string and trounced the Spartans 34-0.

In the Ratcliff stadium where anything can happen, and did in 1930, the Bulldogs again trimmed us 27-12. The wind was so strong that a long Bulldog punt was downed one yard behind the punter. Heading with the wind, Spartan Jack Wool sent a sensational 90 yard punt over the Bulldogs' heads.

ZIMMERMAN'S DAY

When LeRoy Zimmerman roamed the gridiron, it was a different story. The 1939 game turned out to be the biggest upset of our traditional rivalry, and a game which never ended. The Spartans, with a 16-7 score at the half blasted touchdown after touchdown, until the score-board read 42-7.

"The Fresno fans were so shocked," said the Spartan Daily sports story, "that they threw in the towel, and with 20 seconds to go, rushed the field, tore down the goal-posts and the officials had to call the game.

Fog hid most of the 1941 game from the spectators. The tilt ended as an official tie because the officials could not see the game either.

In 1942, the Spartans missed a tie by a shirt-tail. Harold Crisler, end, took a pass on San Jose's 40, and raced down the field in the clear. Bulldog Jack Pattee almost overhauled him, but couldn't quite get to Crisler. In a desperate lunge, Pattee dove and grabbed the Spartan by the shirt-tail which was hanging loose and hauled him down.

FACULTY MUSICIANS TO GIVE RECITAL

Tomorrow night at 8:30 the first Faculty recital of the school year will be presented in the Little Theater. Vocal selections by Maurine Thompson, contralto, and piano solos by William Erlendson will make up the program.

Jean Long will be Miss Thompson's accompanist during the recital.

Program

"Air from Comus," Arne; "Hallelujah" from Cantata No. 29, Bach; "Sweet One and Twenty," Handel; and "Non Piu d'Amore," Falconieri.

Miss Thompson

Three sonatas (D minor, E major, and G major), Scarlatti; "Sheep May Safely Graze," Bach Petri; and "Gigue," Graun.

Mr. Erlendson

"Zigeuner Lieder" (Gypsy songs), Brahms. These songs will be done without interruption between numbers.

Miss Thompson

"Nocturne Number Two," Faure; and "Suite for the Piano" (prelude, sarabande, and toccata), Debussy.

Mr. Erlendson

"Do You Remember," M. Levitzki; "A Piper," M. Head; "Spring Dropped a Song in My Heart," B. Fenner; and "Jungle Jingles" (comic cycle), G. Klemm.

Miss Thompson

The comic cycle will include "Wise Man" (the elephant), Anti-Social Item" (the lion), "In Far-off Sumatra" (the monkey), "Bathing Beauties" (the rhinoceros and hippopotamus), and "Playful Puss" (the leopard).

The public is invited to the recital and there will be no admission charged.

SPECIAL PAPER PLUGS CHAPEL

The "30" club, an organization of journalism and advertising majors, is going to publish a special souvenir edition of the Spartan Daily. It will be the "Chapel Edition," and proceeds gained from selling each copy for a dime will go to the Chapel fund. The paper will come out Monday, December 9, and will be sold for several days.

Student on the editorial board of this special edition will be: Virginia "Gin" Mahon, Hal Snook, David Black, Janice Leeper, Glorilee Wolken, Irene Ontjen, Vtrne Baker and Florence Ross. The paper will contain features of student life descriptions of San Jose State college and articles on campus organizations, activities, major departments, and enrollment statistics.

Harry Engwicht, professor of radio, explained answers to questions usually asked in amateur license tests given by the Federal Communications Commission at last Thursday's meeting of the Radio Club.

Chairman Karl Hummel asked for volunteers to come down Saturday to start building a radio station. Several members responded favorably to the request, he states.

The group also discussed plans for next quarter. The final meeting of the term will be held on Wednesday, December 4 at 7:30 in room S112.

Frizzi Leads Frosh Group

Len Frizzi was elected chairman of Group I of the freshman class at the meeting held Tuesday.

Other officers elected were Dick Baker, vice chairman; Jeanne Collins, secretary; Dale Wilson, treasurer; Roy Bertorelli, student council representative; and Len Livingston, Spartan Daily representative.

Bob Mead was chosen to represent the group at the Gripe dinner, and Chairman Frizzi appointed Marian Forrest to serve on the entertainment committee.

A monologue by Doris Perry concluded the meeting.

Personnel Test Dates Announced

Personnel tests will be given December 21 and 27 in the Morris Dailey auditorium at 7:30 a.m. for students entering San Jose State college winter quarter, announces Mrs. D. R. Matthews, local personnel test examiner.

Students who were exempt from taking the tests fall quarter because of late registration are requested to take them December 21. Students entering college on the trial standing are also asked to take their tests at this time.

Orders of Day From AWA Say Leave Us Be Neat, Kids---

Keep it clean, kids. Keep it clean. This is one of the many slogans AWA will use in its campaign to clean up the college campus, according to Joanne Hoffman, chairman of the campaign.

The week of December 9-12 was decided upon as "Clean-up" week at Wednesday's AWA meeting. On these days AWA members will attempt to make Spartans aware of the unnecessary refuse thrown around the campus. Special efforts will be taken to acquaint everyone with the rules concerning the Student Union. Backed by the student court, the AWA union hostesses will be on hand every hours to send names of violators to the justices.

Fraternities and service organizations will be asked to aid in the campaign by contributing signs, bookcases, wastebaskets, and physical labor. AWA members are planning on cleaning the Student Union each afternoon, and will welcome the assistance of any eager student.

Organizations are requested to make sure they are represented at every AWA meeting, so that information about the campaign will reach as many girls as possible.

Girls wishing to serve as Student Union hostesses may sign up in the Dean of Women's office.

FLOWERS FOR THE LADIES EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT

Evelyn Vipham, Pat Munchhof, and Marie Julian will model for the Allenian Fashion show in the Student Union Sunday.

GIRLS TO MAKE AND DRESS DOLLS

Eta Epsilon members are planning for Christmas early. At their meeting Monday night, the girls will make and dress dolls to put under the Spartan Daily Christmas tree.

Gayl Quinn, president of the home economics club, has announced that at a December meeting the dolls will be gaily wrapped for the tree and there will be prizes for the best work. Some of the girls are making stuffed dolls and toys while others are dressing dolls brought from home.

Each year the Spartan Daily staff sponsors a Christmas tree in the Publications office. All contributions to the tree are given to children in the County hospital at Christmas time.

After working on their doll project, Eta Epsilon members will hold a short business meeting and refreshments will be served.

Double Ring Ceremony
CHESTER, Pa. (UP)—Harold Brown's marriage was a double-ring ceremony—he had to buy a second band in a hurry after the first was stolen from his car on the day of the wedding. Brown was married on schedule.

Ski Club Elects Jay Sevy Prexy At Tuesday Meet

The Ski Club elected its officers for the coming year at their meeting Tuesday night. They are: Jay Sevy, president; Bob Page, vice-president; Pat Kimmick, secretary; and John Daegling, treasurer.

Appointed to the executive committee were Herb Blatt, Dolores Perrone, and Paul Sievers.

Fred Bell, representing Sun Valley, gave a talk on the resort there, and "Ski Chase," a technical film, was shown. The club has a membership of 170 students.

FROSH MAY BUY SKATING TICKETS

Freshmen are advised by Matthew Simon, chairman, to get their tickets soon for the class skating party, Monday, December 2 from 8 to 12 p. m. at Rollerland.

There are only 650 tickets according to Simon. They may be obtained in the library arch for 50 cents with student body card, and 65 cents without. Skates are included in the price.

"The party is only for Freshmen and their guests," emphasizes Simon. "An evening of entertainment and relaxation is planned with several surprises in store. The Snack Bar will be open for refreshments; door prizes will be given as well as prizes which will be awarded to winners of the various contests."

ENGINEERS TO ORGANIZE CLUB

Raymond Goodwin, Warren Hageman, Donald Repp, Wesley Shellhammer, Charles Ward, and John Clarke were elected to represent and organize the engineers into a society, at last Friday's meeting of the group.

The meeting was opened by Sergio Bonetti, president of Epsilon Mu Gamma, Engineering fraternity. He spoke about the future plans of the fraternity, and the pledging of new members. Dr. Ralph Smith, head of the San Jose State college Engineering department was introduced, and gave the students some idea of what the department has planned for them in the educational and recreational field.

Mr. Walton, engineering instructor, and the Engineering fraternity, headed by Dr. Smith, will aid the men elected to organize the engineers. Mr. Walton will serve as their adviser.

CAMPUS MAGAZINE GOES ON SALE DEC. 11

"Now that Lucurgus is getting ready to go to press, we are a little more certain of the material that is in it," states magazine Editor Margaret Moore. "The magazine is now in the hands of Jessie Steinagle, art editor, for illustration."

"We received so much more material than we anticipated," adds Miss Moore, "that we shall have to hold some of it for next quarter's edition. Most of the contributions were of an exceptional quality."

Concerning State and its campus in general, five articles have been accepted: "When the Indians Fought for Warner"—a sports interview with Pop Warner by Keith Pope; "The Woman Within," an interview by Jean Grenbeaux about Edith Henrich of the English department who has written a book of poetry; a story on the marching band by Phil Robertson; an article on the Spartan Daily Christmas tree by Phil Ginn; a feature on the Coop, dealing with the favorite student hangout and the personalities connected with it.

Concerning student life are several short stories and cartoons such as "How to Pass a Course" by Charles Anderson—two pages of cartoons and information that "will cut everyone in on the scoop." "You Name It!" by John Mise—an expose of the clear-cut, highly idealistic co-ed's mind. In Miss Moore's words, "Strictly a biting satire."

"You Remember Penelope" by Eileen Carter—helpful to those persons who can't find the right ending to a letter. "The Gospel According to Wes"—how a fella solves his housing problems in the Biblical manner. "Homework Bound" by Charles Anderson—Freddie does his homework.

Two short stories, "Salami at Six" by Wally Trabing and "The Wen" by Jim Dilles, serious poetry as well as humorous, cartoons by Nick Roukos and Donnis Shreiber, and a four page spread on fashions, are some of the other items included in the magazine.

Lucurgus will go on sale December 11, selling for 35 cents a copy.

Double for Alam Clock
REDLANDS, Cal. (UP)—Police here are doubling for an alarm clock on the request of a mother who asked that they get her son out of bed in the morning in time for school. She complained that her boy didn't want to go to work nor to school. His main occupation, she said, was sleeping.

Guild Broadcasts Initial Program

A scheduled interview with veterans' coordinator Edward W. Clements will be the main feature on the Radio Guild's first broadcast Monday. Going on the air at 4, the program will last 15 minutes.

The program, under the production of Martin Brassill, is based on news and features about San Jose State college. The spotlight during this first broadcast will be focused on Veterans' Housing as it relates to the students of San Jose State college. The script was written by Abner Fritz and Barbara Stewart.

The Radio Guild is a new organization on the campus. This is the first of several weekly programs to be written, produced and acted by its members. It is hoped that the college and the community will both benefit from the activities of the Guild. This program will keep the citizens of San Jose informed about the "city within a city" on Washington Square.

SOPHOMORES WIN MIXER

"Well, we won," sighs Sophomore Frosh Mixer chairman, Virginia Mahon.

By winning the swimming contests yesterday, and gaining the 25 points that go with it, the sophomores brought their mixer point total to 125, and a victory over the class of '50.

The swimming events brought hostilities to a close for this quarter. Next quarter, a committee from both classes will decide upon time, place, and events to be held.

Gobs, Nuts, Monks?

Pearl McLean will offer a paper on "Sailors, Coconuts, and Monkeys," as her extra-curricula requirement for admittance to the Mathematics honor society.

The Mathematics honor society, is a group of students who are also members of Gamma Pi Epsilon, Mathematics majors society.

Miss McLean will deliver her paper in room 119 at 3 p. m. this afternoon.

Swim Show Meetings

AWA asks that all girls interested in participating in the swim show attend the weekly meetings of the swim club every Monday, 7, at the men's pool. Men interested in performing should report at the meeting the first Monday of the month.

LA TORRE PLANS SALES BOOST

The quarterly sales campaign sponsored by the La Torre staff will open today, with tickets signifying payment for the 1947 yearbook being sold at the booth in the Library arch, in the Business office, and in the Publication office.

La Torre may be purchased for five dollars, or if students wish to do so they may place a two dollar deposit, paying the remainder at a later date. The drive will close Wednesday.

"We will have only 3500 yearbooks for a student body of approximately 6000, so if you want a La Torre you'd better buy it now," says Business Manager Bill Ellsworth.

Ellsworth also announced that the deadline for organizations to buy space has been changed from Monday to Wednesday.

La Fave Elected Meu Club Chairman

Don La Fave was elected chairman of the Meu club, formerly known as the Wednesday 12:30 freshman group. The name, chosen by the club Wednesday, holds a special secret significance to its members.

Officers for this quarter are: vice chairman, Bob Sanders; secretary, Ann Costanza; treasurer, Dave Kamp; reporter, Joanne Thornley; student council representative, Dick George; and sergeant-at-arms, Merrill Hall.

CCF MEETS TODAY

Colleges and universities of China and their present-day situation will come under CCF discussion today at 12:30 in room 21. Miss Beatrice Sutherland, missionary from China on furlough will lead the talk.

David Farley, CCF president, requests all club members who are not in class to attend, and invites all others who are interested in the problems of the Orient.

HERE'S SOME LOWDOWN ON TONIGHT'S FUN-FEST

Tonight's the night!

White shirts, rooters' caps, megaphones, pom-poms, and colored cards are in order—not to mention the noise parade, first event on the Spartan Spirit list for this evening's gala game fest. Equipped with the foregoing, Spartans will play host to nearly 1500 Fresno rooters.

Here are the facts! It is important that everyone planning to attend the game reads and understands this.

1. If you are going to be in the noise parade, read the instructions given elsewhere on this page.

2. If you want to sit in the rooter's block, you must wear a white shirt and rooters cap (white side out).

3. You must bring the seat tickets which were issued a few weeks ago.

4. Even if your ticket is for the center section, you will not be allowed in the block without a white shirt and rooter's cap.

5. All student body card holders must enter through the east gate behind our rooting section. ASB card holders will not be allowed through the gate behind the Fresno section.

6. Instructions for card tricks will be tacked on the seats. At half time, read the instructions and follow them carefully. This is the last time card tricks will be used this year. If they are done carefully, it will make a great climax for this year's rooting section.

7. The center section will be filled first, regardless of the seat number appearing on your ticket. THE SEATS ARE NOT RESERVED. It's first come, first seated.

As Ken McGill so often says, "We really want you to racket it up," except—when instructions are being given. Careful attention is requested, so that the half time activities will work smoothly.

SPARTAN HARRIERS END UNBEATEN SEASON; DEFEAT STANFORD 21-35

Thelno Knowles, former national Junior 880-yard champ, served advance warning to track coaches and athletes on the coast that he will be hard to beat this year in any race from the half-mile dash up to the two-mile run by his brilliant performance yesterday afternoon against the, Stanford University cross-country squad when he turned in a time of 15.16.6, on the Indian course, which is only 100 yards shorter than a full three miles. Coach Bud Winter's team defeated Stanford, 21-35.

Eugene Haynes also turned in a remarkable exhibition of early season running by finishing only 2.1 seconds behind Knowles to win second place. Redskin Alonzo Lyons was out-classed on his home field by the Spartan runners, but came through with a good time of 15 minutes and 25 seconds.

Murray Collins, Spartan distance man, showed some of his old form by taking fourth place. Collins was close behind Lyons of Stanford but failed to nip the Indian at the finish. Don Branson, winner of the inter-class cross-country run picked off fifth spot. Gordon Johnson came in sixth; George Grimes, Stanford, seventh;

Grid Writers Consider Terry

George Terry, captain and little all-American candidate of San Jose State's flying Spartans, was among the linemen of the major Bay area schools under consideration by the Football Writers Association of Northern California for the award of "Lineman of the Year," it was announced by the San Francisco Press Club this week.

Terry was the only man from the CCAA to be nominated for the honor. He was one of seven players selected for final approval by the sports writers in choosing a man to receive their award. Bill McPartland, St. Mary's left tackle was the final choice.

Frank Ganahl, Stanford, eighth; Bill Rogers of San Jose, ninth; and Richard Vierra, San Jose tenth.

ENTRIES URGED FOR TURKEY-TROT

Coach Bud Winter issued a special reminder today to all fraternity presidents and club heads to submit a list of all possible entrants for the third annual Turkey Trot.

The race will start in front of the Men's gym, with the runners going down San Carlos street, south on Seventh street, around the stadium, back down Seventh street, and across the finish line at the gym.

Official starter, Paul Pitman, said he will be on hand to give the contestants a big send-off. Dean Pitman has been an official in every annual Turkey Trot. Dean Pitman went on to say, "I'll be there to shoot off everything from my mouth to a cannon. I plan on having a shotgun handy in case a turkey gets into the race."

There will be prizes for the first four men who finish the race. First place winner will receive a turkey; second, a goose; third, a duck; and fourth, a chicken. The winner of the 1942 Turkey Trot, Thelno Knowles, said, "I'm going to try to win first place again but I know the competition is tough."

WRESTLING TEAM OPENS SEASON IN MEN'S GYM TODAY

Coach Ted Mumby's San Jose State college Spartan Varsity wrestling squad will play host to the Stanford mat-men in an informal match today in the Men's gym at 3 o'clock.

This meet will give Coach Mumby's men a chance to gain some experience in actual wrestling competition in preparation for the regular season which will open next quarter.

"We have a 50-50 chance against them," declared Ted. Stanford has a fine squad, and we expect to face stiff competition."

Vern Jones, who was runner up in the Far Western championships in 1945, will be in charge of the Indians.

Gambling Becomes Threat to Sports

CHICAGO (UP)—Members of the old Capone syndicate have gained control of a large part of the "parlay card" betting on college football games, an official of the Chicago crime commission charged yesterday.

Authorities here said it had learned that students on some campuses act as agents for distributing the cards. Some students make as high as 25 per cent of the "take" on the cards and can receive from $100 to $150 a week, said the authorities.

see some action are Earl Con-noley, H. Smith, and Roy Bridg-ham at 165; Otis Booth and Keith Wilson at 200.

Three men on the squad who will not see action today are Hans Wiedenhofer, Ray Misner and Fred Albright.

Everyone who is interested in wrestling is invited to attend the meet.
